

Spiced pumpkin caramel latte

Pumpkin pies are eaten for thanksgiving because they are not only tasty but readily available and follow tradition. The pumpkin pie is a symbol of the land and the cultivation of pumpkins and squashes by Native Americans. This is a modern version on what is an Old Time Favorite that continues to evolve in new heights of appesarance and flavour whilst maintaing the fundamental essence of tradition. As with all that we do here at Dobla we wanted to take to a new dimension and the introduction of the Dobla Spring leaf green is a perfect connection to bringing a new magical dimension to tyhis wonderful cake.
