In a saucepan, cook together water, sugar and glucose to 103°C, and then pour over the condensed milk, hydrated and melted gelatin. Emulsify the mixture with the Sinfonia Cioccolato Bianco chocolate and coloring with the hand blender. Let set completely in the refrigerator overnight. For use heat up at 45°C and use around 38°C.

Assembly, layout and finishing

Realize a chocolate sphere with white chocolate. When crystallized, unmold, and cut the top with warmed metallic snowflake cutter. Place 15 minutes in the freezer and spray to form white chocolate velvet surface. Unmold the frozen quince compote spheres and deep completely each one into the chestnut vanilla cream to form a thin layer. Freeze again. Pipe the pear Chantilly into the first half of the large silicon mold spheres and place the frozen Quince compote in the middle. Place the second half of the large spheres mold and fill completely with the remaining pear Chantilly. Freeze and unmold. Place a small disk of the sponge inside the velvet chocolate sphere and the pastry snowball on top. Decorate with Dobra decoration: Snowflake.
